

One-on-One for Husbands: Questions Men Ask about Marriage

Do you ever find it hard to understand your wife? What do you mean? Okay, you're cleaning out the shed. All the tools are outside on the ground. You are inside sweeping. Your wife comes out, sees the tools on the ground and the broom in your hand, and asks, Honey, are you cleaning out the shed? Now many husbands react with a stern look and say, What in the world does it look like I am doing? And the whole time they are thinking, Will I ever understand this woman? Tell me husbands, this or a similar situation has not happened to you? And yet God calls us to walk with our wives in an understanding way (I Peter 3:7). Would not have called us to understand our wives if we were incapable of doing it. In the Bible God tells us just how to do it. So, the question comes down to, Then how in the world do we do it, Lord? In his book, ONE-ON-ONE For Husbands Lee Moseley investigates what God has to say in this 90-day devotional while helping us to hear exactly what our wives are truly saying with the reality of understanding them. This book will not only open your eyes, but it will help to restore a love for your wife you may have thought burned out long ago. Once you start to catch the concepts, and begin living them, you will soon see a spark reunite in your wife that you may not see in many years. Lee begins each day with a question husbands might be asking in their marriages concerning their wives. He then gives an explanation with a personal illustration to help bring it to life. Also, scriptures references and other Bible readings are encouraged along with a prayer each of us can pray to help our marriages. Finally, Lee gives a action step to be applied to any marriage to better ourselves and our spouses. What you will read in ONE-ON-ONE For Husbands, if applied, can become a time bomb of love that will impact you, your wife, and your marriage; not to mention your children and all those around you. A recommended reading for any and every husband who wants to better his marriage!
