

Put a smile on our day, and we feel good. Put a smile on someone else's day, and we both feel great, then the two of us can make two others' lives shine a little brighter, and we've begun to change the group, department, organization, family, and so on—that's Person-Shine at work. Each of us can make a positive difference in brightening others' lives one person at a time, one act at a time, and one day at a time. This guide to Person-Shine details real-life heroes and real-life stories that show the immense power of that positive difference of just one person. Author Kenneth H. Mills gives twelve effective guidelines to follow on your own Person-Shine journey. Each chapter begins with a quote that sets the stage for the guideline that follows. These guidelines, well practiced, will inspire positive living and working and will enable readers a brightened path on their own Person-Shine journey.
