

My name is Nicholas Chabra, you can call me Nick, I was born in Ohio but now live in North Carolina. Im sixteen years old but cant do what most sixteen year olds do; I have Muscular Dystrophy and Scoliosis, so I love reading and poetry. With my poetry and reading, I can be anywhere and do anything. Someone once asked me, since my poems are so different - how do I do it. I have no special plan, I can be walking down the street, be right in the middle of school, or in a movie, or studying the Bible, and get hit with an idea for a poem. Sometimes there are days when I cant write. If you want to write poetry or write stories, whatever it is that you want to do, dont give up. Keep working at it, remember - everyone has something they are good at. Whether its math, writing, playing video games, or ramping on your bike.
