

A Bulletin on the Condition of the County, Almshouses of Missouri (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from A Bulletin on the Condition of the County, Almshouses of Missouri Statistics. There is but one method of collecting accurate statistics concerning social conditions; and that is to send experts into the field to gather the information upon the spot. Unfortunately this method was not open to the department of sociology when it undertook to investigate the condition of the county almshouses of Missouri. The desired information had to be obtained by other and less accurate means. Wherever possible a student or alumnus of the University was sent to visit the almshouse about which information was sought; but it was found possible to do this in only about thirty percent, of the cases. In the remaining cases question blanks were sent to the superintendents of the almshouses with the request that they be filled out and returned to the department. In this way information was received concerning fifty per cent. more of the almshouses. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
