

Perhaps no other word in the English language instills feelings of fear, dread, anguish, or curiosity of the unknown as death. What happens to us when we die? Just what is death? You can ask a hundred people these same questions, and get a hundred different answers. The above questions will be answered in this book, based upon the Holy Scriptures (Holy Bible, King James Version). Even though this book deals with the subject of death, it is not meant to be morbid. For a child of God, the stories in this book will bring hope, peace, and anticipation of that day when he/she will be reunited with Christian loved ones already deceased, and ushered into that Heavenly Home. In this book, you will read true accounts of people who have seen and heard what lies beyond this mortal life just before they died. In the story of Ginger, you will even read of some extraordinary happenings surrounding the death of the authors beloved cat. It is the authors wish that the reader enjoy this book and, maybe, catch A Glimpse Beyond this life through the eyes of the people inside.
