

Realizing Prosperity: Harnessing the Unlimited Power of the Universe to Achieve Your Lifes Dreams

Realizing Prosperity, first published in 1931, is a guidebook for those seeking a happier, more fulfilling life. In a series of five lessons, author Franklin Farrington describes the true nature of the Universe and offers proven steps (including a simple to use meditation technique) to allow you to harness its power and energy to achieve your lifes goals of better health, more meaningful relationships, financial success, inner peace, etc. From the Foreword of Realizing Prosperity: As students of Life, we are seeking a method by means of which we can attain more Good. What we all want is to eliminate friction and anxiety. We desire health of body, peace of mind, and success in all of our affairs. This is possible through harmonious adjustment of the mind to the outer and inner realm. The fear and worry of life can be banished in no other way than by Understanding. To become enlightened and to realize the Truth is to find your Self-reliance increased. Understanding, in the sense in which I am using the word, includes our individual relationship to the universal Reality. The moment we look upon the Universe as the Whole, of which we are a part, we feel an alliance with a friendly Power. The Universe is not a foe to be conquered, but a friend to be understood.
