

The Creative Epiphany - Gifted Minds, Grand Realizations

The Creative Epiphany - Gifted Minds, Grand Realizations By Jo Ann Brown-Scott The talented men and women who have contributed stories for this book will dazzle you with their gifts of expression and passion as they reveal their experiences with The Creative Epiphany. Some have triumphed over unbelievable adversity and harm, beating nearly unbeatable odds in order to live out their lives longings. Others have struggled through overwhelming difficulties of their own making, driving themselves on toward greater self-knowledge and peace. What they all have in common is a message that came to them in a Creative Epiphany; a message delivered by their angel in the darkness, their wisdom, their souls voice, that jolted them forward toward enhanced inspiration and creativity. Listening and being aware are the only requirements for hearing epiphany's message. It is easy to recognize its arrival, in a whisper or shout, to your mind's ear. Your well-being is its simple agenda, always guiding you wisely toward the truth. Epiphany's advice might come through an instantaneous flash of understanding during chaos or calm, or perhaps hinted at in the voice of a friend. Some creative epiphanies require years of unfolding; others happen in a humble moment, easily overlooked. But always, an epiphany is life-changing and powerful, bringing discovery, vivid realization and certitude. A Creative Epiphany will reassure you that in discovering your life's purpose you will reach fulfillment and understanding; knowing without a doubt what your unique creative contributions must be in your brief lifetime here on earth. Read about epiphanies. Recognize them. Listen. Have one.
