

The CARICOM System: Basic Instruments

This book provides the reader with an overview of the CARICOM economic integration system of regional co-operation and the primary agreements encompassing the basis of regional co-operation. This compendium of agreements coupled with incisive commentary from two of the regions stellar participants in the regional effort, will quickly establish itself as the authoritative reference work on the CARICOM system. Kenneth Hall is Pro-Vice Chancellor and Principal of the Mona campus, University of the West Indies. He is the editor of Integrate or Perish! Perspectives of Leaders of the Integration Movement 1963 to 1999 and The Caribbean Community: Beyond Survival and is co-editor of Contending With Destiny: The Caribbean in the 21st century and Globalisation: A Calculus of Inequality.
