

Carnival of Wonders: Pearce: Book 2

At an early age, Pearce discovers he has a special gift. Laying his hands on anyone's forehead, he can remove their worst memory. In the second installment of the series, Pearce leaves his widowed father to join a traveling carnival where he uses his ability as a sideshow attraction. It is also at the Carnival of Wonders where he finds first love with the conjoined twins Madeline and Sylvia. This is the second book in a five part series that follows Pearce from his childhood, through his troubled adult life. Graphic Content Warning: There are some scenes in this book related to flashbacks from violent or traumatic events in characters' lives.
