

Alesia G. Brown, Bible teacher, writer and speaker, has a passion for the Old Testament and loves to share insights and revelation through its exciting stories. Alesias teaching ministry is motivating and captivating, delivering Gods Word with great energy and excitement. Alesia is the founder and president of Womens Worshipfest, a non-profit organization that promotes sisterhood in its truest form, challenging women to become complete in mind, body and soul. She has a heart to see women restored and revived in service to God. Alesia resides in Las Vegas, NV, with her daughters, Angela and Jessica. The Bible emphasizes the importance of encouraging and building up one another. However, quite often instead of building up, we are tearing down. Hatin is a street term that means seeking to bring others down and can often come from jealousy, pride and envy. The book Why You Hatin? highlights several Bible characters who allowed their jealousy, pride or envy to lead them into sin. You will be led to examine yourself and your behavior and to look at the love and blessings of God. You will be motivated to ask yourself the question Why you hatin?
