

Christians in Al-Andalus 711-1000 (Culture and Civilization in the Middle East)

Our current image of the Christian population of al-Andalus after AD711 reflects the way history has been written. The Christians almost disappeared from the historical record as the historians of the conquering Muslims concentrated on the glories of the Ummayyads. This book reconsiders, through their own words, the fate of the Christians of al-Andalus. The text discusses two chronicles in Latin on the fate of Hispania, the problematic accounts of Christian martyrs in Cordoba, a Muslim historians account of how his Christian ancestors survived the conquest and other texts reflecting the acculturation of Christians into Islamic society.
