

.html by Gilbert & Mario Hernandez The long-lost Tales of Somnopolis created by Gilbert and Mario Hernandez, which originally appeared in the back of the mid-80s Mister X comic and have never been reprinted since (they did not appear in the Warner book collection, making them the most sought-after Hernandez items ever, out-of-print for well over a decade) are finally collected in one snappy package! Not only does this issue reprint all three original Somnopolis stories (slightly re-edited to delete all references to the world of Mister X and integrate them into the world of Love and Rockets), but Gilbert and Mario have pulled out all the stops and added a new cover, back cover, and title page, as well as a brand-new six-page tale - and the entire book is being presented in a striking, newly executed duotone (black and red) format that shows the work off to far better advantage than the original, somewhat murky coloring. A Bros. classic not to be missed! b&w, 24pg
