In this book, Antiqua Lisha Libbey tells it to you straight and shares lessons that will teach you how to better live in balance and beyond survival. What would your ideal life look like? Antiqua believes in a simple answer; the shortest route to your highest and best life is being your best self and you get there by releasing fear and connecting to your authentic beauty, brilliance and nature. For far too many of us trauma has planted a seed of doubt and fear within us From Bondage to Happiness will give the reader a new prospective on what it means to be divinely you - free, confident and beautiful. Antiqua had to face the worst of the worst in childhood and has dedicated her life to helping other people learn from the amazing teachings that helped her reconnect to life's beauty and her confidence beyond survival. Her work and teachings have been featured on every major television affiliate, and her materials are available to you through trainings, personal coaching, and online programs. As you read this book you'll have a hands-on experience that will help you focus your mind on love and let go of the challenges and struggles you may be feeling trapped by, so you can start living a life you love the life God intends for you.
