

How to Do Impressions: Everything you Need to Know to be an Impression God so you can Rock the House!

The ability to do great impressions, impersonations, voices, accents and characters is not a special gift reserved for the few. It is a learnable skill. Whether your goal is to entertain thousands, spoof your co-workers, or tell entertaining stories at happy hour, YOU can learn the Art of Duplication. These easy-to-follow instructions, unique insights and industry secrets are sure to unleash your inner performer! Tony Scarpelos is a professionally trained actor, popular impressionist and diversely talented voice artist. He has combined acting theory and practice with 25+ years of personal experience to give you the very best program of proven methods, techniques and perspectives on Impression work. You'll learn how to study your character effectively and begin duplicating his or her characteristics. Once you get some of the basics down, Tony's secret weapon is revealed! This brings you into the realm of professional-level impression work. This book is uplifting and encouraging, above all. Many people believe you must be born with a good ear or good eye but Tony assures you that, with the right attitude and an arsenal of powerful tools, you absolutely can learn to do what he does: kick-ass impressions. In his How to Do Impressions Course, Tony also includes video instruction and in-depth character case studies on Al Pacino, Christopher Walken, John Travolta, Morgan Freeman, Antonio Banderas, and many more.
