

GHOST STORIES from the real investigations of the Evansville Vanderburgh Paranormal Team. What could this team of paranormal investigators expect to find when their travels lead them to an abandoned house deep in the wilds of the Appalachian Mountains? A mere ghost or haunting would have been a pleasant experience compared to the horrors that awaited them, and the truth they would uncover. Possibly the most puzzling and horrifying aspect of this investigation was the incredible power and hatred that this entity possessed, and where this energy came from. The fact that this menacing fiend had found it's way into their lives, and how it had done so, left these friends and team mates amazed, astounded and terrified. Based on true events.
