

Got, Not Got: The Lost World of Leeds United

Got, Not Got: The Lost World of Leeds United is an Aladdins cave of memories and memorabilia, guaranteed to whisk you back to Elland Roads fondly remembered Golden Age of mud and magic - as well as a Whites-mad childhood of miniature tabletop games and imaginary, comic-fuelled worlds. The book recalls a more innocent era of football, lingering longingly over relics from the good old days - United stickers and petrol freebies, league ladders, records, big-match programmes and much more - revisiting lost football culture, treasures and pleasures that are 100 per cent Leeds. If you were a Junior White, one of the army of obsessive soccer kids at any time from Don Revies lads first lifting the title to the 91 championship, then this is the book to recall the mavericks - Bremner and Giles, Gray and Currie, Sheridan and Strachan - and the marvels of the Lost World of Football. Also by the authors: The Lost World of Football, What a Shot! and Got, Not Got.
