

Twenty-Eight Snow Angels: A Widows Story of Love, Loss and Renewal

NATIONAL BEACH BOOK FESTIVAL AWARDS RUNNER UP! Resilient Widows Memoir Brings Hope to Others Facing The Loss of a Spouse In this remarkably honest memoir, Diane Dettmann shares her personal experience of the sudden death of her 54 year-old husband and the grief that follows. As she journeys ahead alone into a new life, she rediscovers interests of her past, challenges herself to begin again, and in her mid-fifties, even steps back into the dating scene. The reader will laugh, cry and learn to live life all over again as they ride along with Diane on her brave journey. Widows and widowers have found hope and inspiration in her story. Diane has shared her book with hospice organizations, widows groups, and grief organizations. A courageous and honest story of grief, I will personally recommend to clients and colleagues.--Marty Tousley, Nationally Certified Grief Counselor with Hospice of the Valley, Phoenix, AZ Diane Dettmann's husband, John, was only 54 when he died suddenly in 2000. She couldn't imagine life without him. Diane tells of her emotional journey in touching detail.--Mary Ann Grossmann, St. Paul Pioneer Press
