

The ultimate guide to getting ahead...Everyone wants to be a winner. But not everyone succeeds. What is it that separates the men from the boys, the sheep from the goats, the winners from the losers...This inspirational new guide will help put readers on the right track. The authors show how anyone can become a winner in their own way - and how losers create their own downfall. They explain how to prepare and plan for success, both in business and in your social life, and how to avoid the pitfalls that lurk along the way, threatening to turn would-be winners into dreaded losers. Read this book, and you will learn to create achievable goals -- and to attain them, every time...Illustrated throughout with amusing and thought-provoking cartoons, this is a light-hearted guide with an important message which will help every reader to improve the quality of their lives at home and in the workplace. Nick Thornely and Dan Lees have collaborated on a number of bestselling guides aimed at helping people to achieve their true potential and lead better and more rewarding lives. In addition, Nick Thornely has for many years been a consultant in this field, running his own consulting organisation, Industrial Motivation.
