

My Secret Loss: Finding Peace After Abortion

We were told it would be easy. We thought it was the best choice; but now we suffer with the consequences, the regular reminders, a sense of guilt, and a sense of shame. Through abortion, we now face the death of our babies, death by choice. We try to hide our choice and we try to escape the emotional pain. We seek forgiveness, acceptance, and consolation; yet, we find no solace. Our fears drive us into a life of secrecy, hiding our loss. We suffer a secret loss. My Secret Loss will: Enable the reader to accept the truth about abortion Provide permission and encouragement to grieve the loss of your baby Validate your emotional and psychological harm that has been caused by abortion Discover the path to peace, healing that is only possible through the saving grace of Jesus Endorsements A ministry must [My Secret Loss is] personal, biblical, insightful, purposeful, helpful, truthful, useful and full of grace and truth for those struggling with such a loss. Laurie McIntyre, Pastor of Creative Arts, Elmbrook Church, Brookfield, WI Sheila has opened the pages of her heart to all women who need to know their story is able to be shared. In writing this workbook, she has provided an opportunity for hurting women to find the source of all comfort, our Lord, Jesus Christ. May the participants experience the freedom of knowing reconciliation is possible and be aware of Gods healing blessings. Jeannie Hannemann, M.A. Founder and Executive Director of Elizabeth Ministry International. About the Author Also post-abortive, Sheila M. Luck is the author of five books. She is a Christian event speaker who is often invited to share her story of choosing abortion at age 17, struggling through the aftermath of her choice, and accepting forgiveness and finding peace as only such can be found through Jesus Christ. Sheila has been married to her husband Wayne for over 30 years and together they have two adult daughters. She also works as an attorney, promoting positive change by helping others resolve their differences through facilitated conversations. Please see www.IcanwithIAM.com for more information and like her on Facebook: www.facebook.com/sheilamluck.
