

Torre: Schrei aus Stein (German Edition)

Die alpine Geschichte ist die Summe aller am Berg erlebten Geschichten. Sie funktioniert nicht, wie es sich Moralisten oder auch Idealisten ausdenken. Reinhold Messner taucht ein in den Mythos Cerro Torre, Patagoniens spektakularste Felsnadel. Seit der Tragödie 1959, als Cesare Maestri behauptete, mit Toni Egger den Gipfel erreicht zu haben, bevor eine Lawine den Kameraden in den Tod riss, gibt es Spekulationen über Fakten und Fiktion. Reinhold Messner, der den Torre selbst nie bestieg und jeden um sein Torre-Erlebnis beneidet, bringt mit großer psychologischer Einfühlung und erzählerischer Spannung Licht ins Dunkel. Atemlos wie bei einem Krimi verfolgt der Leser, wie der unmögliche Berg ein Geheimnis nach dem anderen preisgibt und erfährt, wer die eigentlichen Helden eines der schwierigsten und schönsten aller Berge sind.
