

Search The Scriptures: You Shall Know The Truth

In the Scripture we are told only those who overcome will receive the promises of the Kingdom and one day rule in His power. These are the diligent among us, ones who follow all of the commandments of the Lord. To him who overcomes, they will be given the authority to sit on thrones and rule with the Lord. The slothful are not like them, for they could take it or leave it, and if it requires much work, they are going to leave it. Overcoming in the spiritual battle that is upon us requires serious effort and the sluggard and the slothful need not apply. Volume Two: You Shall Know the Truth was written to equip the over comers who are the ones willing to pay the price that their lamps may be full of the oil of Gods Holy Spirit. But it is not given the slothful among us; it is earned by the diligent. Jesus admonished us to know the truth, for only through the knowledge of the truth can the heart of man be truly set free. Jesus promised us, You Shall Know the Truth, and then the truth shall set you free.
