

How Jewish was Jesus?

Modern scholars and believers alike are forever fascinated with the person of Jesus Christ, the historical man that walked the earth 2000 years ago. The Bible, and specifically the four gospels, provides us with the clearest and most reliable picture of what Jesus was like. But an important question to consider in the pursuit of the historical Jesus is how did he actually belong within 1st Century Judaism? Essentially, how Jewish was Jesus? By specifically looking at how Jesus and his followers interacted with key Jewish symbols, the ideals and beliefs that were most important to the first century Jew, it will be helpful in further understanding how Jesus viewed himself within 1st Century Judaism.
