

Judge Not...: A Guide to Influence People Who Think Differently

Learn to Achieve More by Judging Less! A core part of success in any effort, whether personal or professional, lies with our own abilities to communicate effectively and to influence others. Without these skills, we simply cannot leverage our ideas. Judge Not outlines six easy steps to enable your ideas to be embraced by others and to allow for dialogue that will impact your thinking to be better than it is on your own. You will learn to judge less, encourage more, and intentionally complement others differences with your own valuable characteristics. You will be able to work better, sell your ideas more readily, and become a more positive member of your familys dynamics. Judge Not is based on the conceptual framework of Patti and Ken Leiths rapidly growing Inter Face Methods assessment tool designed to foster adaptability and improve relational intelligence to interact with others in order to achieve results. Whether your efforts are directed within your personal or professional life, this book can prepare you to interact with other members of your team (family, work, civic, customer) to enable collaboration and achievement, with better results than you dreamed of!
