

50 Ways to Create Great Relationships

In relationships, there are two kinds of people: reactors and creators. If you want stronger personal and professional connections the keys to a happy, successful life you need to stop responding to other people's shortcomings and start forming the relationships you want for yourself. In 50 Ways to Create Great Relationships, bestselling author and relationship guru Steve Chandler offers more of the warm, witty, practical advice he's famous for: proven tips, strategies, and insights that can help you build and maintain loyal, meaningful relationships. You'll learn how to shift your energy from taking to giving, how to use innovation and imagination, how to be a creative listener instead of a passive listener, and much more. Expanded from the audio-only 35 Ways to Create Great Relationships, 50 Ways will open the door to new opportunities for loyalty, friendship, and support in your personal life and the workplace.
