

Have you discovered that your dream of retiring at 65, being married once or staying with the same company an entire career are gone? At what point did the reality hit you that you're back to square one when you thought you'd be on easy street? Life changed and while you might not like your current state it's a chance for a new beginning... not the end of the world! Starting over is your opportunity to design your life your way! You are no longer at the mercy of your spouse, your boss or your creditors. So why not start living by design?!? Whether you've lost it at 65 or 25 taking a few Simple Steps can mean the difference between surviving and thriving. Let's toss out all the trash from that past that hasn't served you, embrace the changes that do and celebrate the new you!
