

Love Letters

Vicky and her mate Jen have always said that they're not into immature blokes who just want a quick grope in the corner at a party. But now Jen has a steady boyfriend (plus a few little extras) and Vicky's starting to feel a bit left out. It's not that she's short of offers, she just has her eye on someone special. When the love letters start to arrive, she's thrilled—her secret admirer seems to have perfect timing. It's really flattering to be told that someone loves her. Vicky is hoping he'll write again—even though she doesn't know who he is. Or what he's like. Or what he wants.
