

Making Moral Decisions

The question What am I to do? needs the balance and completion of What are we to do? With clarity and insight Jersild addresses the particular need of our time: a great awareness of our interdependence as a world community. The relationship between private and public morality is clarified by exploring such questions as: What prompts Christians to disagree on moral issues? Is there a Christian morality? and How are convictions related to decisions? Using critical incidents or cases to illustrate ethical points, Jersild examines such contemporary issues as euthanasia, employment and ones sense of vocation, homosexuality, and more.
