

Portwine Rose - A Ghost Story

Portwine Rose is a gothic, fantastical coming-of-age story about a girl with crippling self-consciousness due to a very visible portwine stain around her eye, who is trying to come to terms with the assumed death of her mother whilst hesitantly falling in love with a morose letter cutter who carves headstones for the departed. After being severely attacked by bullies at school, Rose Harkness feels threatened and alone in the world. When her environmental protester sister Scarlet learns of their mother's death, she leaves her unconventional life behind to look after Rose, and decides to move them both to an isolated, ivy-ridden cottage deep within the forest. But their world is far from the utopian fairytale they dreamed they would build, and hidden truths buried long ago, deeper than their mother's shallow grave, threaten to rise to the surface along with the ghosts of the sister's pasts.
