

Ocean Memories In A Landlocked Home: A Short Story

A family vacation at the beach ends in disaster. Guilt and the pain of wounds that are only magnified in a loveless home lead Denise to abandon sunny Florida. She heads west to the Front Range of Colorado and adopts a disfigured Thai girl. As Denise concludes her tenure being a college professor and her daughter prepares to attend a university in Florida, they have a long-anticipated talk that ends in a time and place Denise never expected. (The story is about 4700 words and 16 pages).
