

Paranormal Love

Set in London during the 1970s and 80s, this story revolves around the women in Graham Florys life from his time as a student in west London, when he encounters Irena at an international meeting club, through his days working as a publishers accountant, when he meets Carole, to a meditation class and his relationship with Cecily. Graham is a loser who has dreams/fantasies about these women, believing that he is linked to them via the power of transference, a means of contacting or getting through to people by the power of thought. The novel is divided into three sections each dealing with one woman in turn and the effect each has on Grahams routine life. Is he mad? Is he deluding himself and believing that he wants to believe, rather than what is happening?
