

Self Defense For Runners and Walkers! (Self Defense Made Simple Series)

Learn how to defend yourself while you are walking or running! Do you ever worry that you are a vulnerable target when you are walking or running? The fact of the matter is that you are a target and unless you know how to defend yourself properly, you may be in trouble. This publication walks you through how to defend yourself in a wide range of dangerous scenarios. After downloading it, you will have all of the information that you need at your fingertips so you can defend yourself and keep yourself safe when trouble strikes. You will learn how to prepare for trouble and how to keep calm when it happens. You will also learn about the following information in greater detail

- Introduction - Use this chapter to get an overview of self defense and some of the tactics that you can use to keep yourself safe.
- Importance of Self Defense - Why is it important to know how to defend yourself? When you review these reasons, you will see clearly why you need to pursue this study further.
- Preparing for Walk/run - The most important time for safety is before you ever leave your home. This chapter can help you to prepare for danger that may strike without warning.
- Essential Tips for Self Defense - These tips can do more than teach you how to defend yourself. They can make a difference of life or death in some situations.
- Understand Gut Feeling - Your instincts are often the most important thing for you to consider while you are out. If you feel that something is wrong, more than likely, it is.
- Tips for Dealing with Attacker - What do you do when you are attacked? After reading this chapter, you will know how to defend yourself from violent people.
- Myths Relating to Self Defense - It is important for you to understand the truth about defending yourself. Dont fall for these myths or you could be in trouble.
- Techniques - Some of the more important techniques for defense are discussed in this chapter.
- Conclusion -

Putting all of the information together for you so that you can get the most out of what you have read. And much, much more Do you ever feel unsafe when you are out for a walk or a run? You should! In fact, there are many people that end up hurt or worse, just because they are caught by surprise and do not know how to defend themselves. This book helps you to overcome that problem. This publication is more than a general guide that teaches you about the dangers of being defenseless; it helps teach you to do something about it. Download it today and you will be safer right away.
