

All the Pretty People: Tales of Carob, Shame, and Barbie-Envy

This new book by Ariel Gore brings out all of the dirt on 1970s suburban hippies. Through an authentic voice, funny stories alternate between warming and saddening your soul. Its a queer love story. But its also got no shortage of shame, violence, and Barbie envy. Its about the pretty people she used to know in Californiathe people she wanted to be but never quite felt she was. How was I to know that all the pretty people got their answers from TV?
