

Prophecy and Apocalyptic: An Annotated Bibliography (IBR Bibliographies)

With the proliferation of biblical studies research, it has become difficult for even the most dedicated scholars and students to stay abreast of the available resources. The IBR Bibliographies, produced under the auspices of the Institute for Biblical Research, are designed to guide students and scholars through this maze of literature to the most significant resources for study. In keeping with the intent of the series, the latest volume, Prophecy and Apocalyptic, complements and expedites thorough, informed research. In Prophecy and Apocalyptic, scholars Brent Sandy and Daniel OHare introduce readers to the most essential works for students of Old Testament prophecy and apocalyptic literature.
