

Hiding Behind a Smile: Disguising Our Deepest Feelings

Written in poetry form, the author speaks of growing up with emotional, physical and sexual abuse as well as a fathers alcoholism. It has been put together with a beginning, middle and healing ending so it reads like the story it was meant to be. Not only intended to touch adults with similar pasts, but is very easy reading for younger people who, with proper guidance and support, are ready to face the pain in order to move past it and reclaim their own strength.
