

Considering Adoption? When Dorothy has a chance to meet her birth mother, she is overwhelmed by the possible outcomes: Will she love her? Will her adoptive father be hurt? Will she ruin her birth mother's life now? This tender story of the selfless act of adoption addresses critical issues for those considering adoption, including: Birth mothers wondering if they are doing the right thing Adoptive parents wondering if introducing their child to the birth parents might change the way their child feels about them Adopted adults thinking about trying to find their birth parents.
