

Praying Unto Salvation

Patricia Nordean was saved in 1975 at age 22. She sought God with her whole heart and heard the Voice of God, walking with Him. The Lord said this to her and, now, to you: God needs you! He needs you to fulfill your place in His Body. He needs you to be so filled with His love - first for yourself, then for the Body of Christ and then for the spiritually dead of this world - that you will be an avenue for His power to flow through. When you are in right relation to self and fellow man then you are a proper channel of God's love. The command of God is that we love one another; as Jesus Christ loved us, that we love one another. God has a plan for your life. Yes you! Jesus Christ loves YOU! That is why He died for you - you alone, and all of mankind together. God will work through you as you allow Him - as you lay down your self life and allow the life of Christ to be lived through you. Patricia is part of the vibrant Christian community in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Her involvement in ministry has included disaster relief in Honduras after Hurricane Mitch; church planting in Lebokwago, South Africa; teaching at Liberty Bible School in Belfast, Ireland and missions in Peru. Manifestations of the power and authority of Jesus Christ have been experienced through her ministry. Praying unto Salvation was written from experiences in the author's life necessitating a deeper knowledge of God. As she sought God, He revealed His unfathomable wisdom, understanding, and purposes for life. She recorded what He spoke to her and this book is a record of those mysteries and secrets. It is the author's prayer that what was shown can help others to hear God's truths and glorify God.
