

Coping with the traumatic experiences Ava endured with the Kakos is more challenging than she ever imagined it to be. She finds herself struggling to remember the details of her time kept away with Damien Kakos and when the memories assault her mind, she is plagued with crippling fear. There is something in the back of Ava's thoughts screaming at her, telling her that the fight with the devil's brood has not yet ended. Newly married, Ava and Ari deal with issues involving trust, honesty and faith in one another and as they plot their course for a new life together, they discover that their individual wants and needs don't exactly match. Ari's promises to Ava begin to break. Some of the Alexander's family secrets are revealed and Ava realizes that she needs to keep her friends close, and her enemies even closer. A Broken Fate, the second novel in The Beautiful Fate Series, dives further into Ava and Ari's nail-bitter of a story and adds even more suspense, mystery, romance and thrills. This series is impossible for any reader to resist.
