

The Berea Quarterly, Vol. 12: January, 1909 (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Berea Quarterly, Vol. 12: January, 1909

Of National Concern! These robust, capable people are Americans - many Sons of the Revolution - were loyal to the Union; but lack of waterways and railways has kept them in pioneer conditions. They lack the educated leaders and connections with more advanced communities which the West possessed. By well adapted Normal and Industrial Work, Extension Lecturers on Horseback, etc., Berea is saving them from corrupting influences, and fitting them to re-inforce the best elements of the Nation. Non-sectarian. Mainly dependent on individual gifts. Special need for new buildings, and extension work. A gift of $100 constitutes an effective helper. Every sustaining scholarship of $40 opens the way for one more student. Send gifts or inquiries to the President, Wm. Goodell Frost, LL.D., Berea, Ky. A Special Emergency now exists. Founded among anti-slavery southerners, Berea admitted colored students like a northern school. This is now prohibited by law and the school must meet the extra expense of separate provision for the colored. Make money orders payable to Thos. J. Osborne, Treas. Berea, Madison County, Kentucky. In bequests use the corporate name Berea College. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
