

Dream by Design: How the Power of One Year Can Build Your Dreams

Don't be a slave to the immediate, live for the ultimate! Dream by Design is about a pursuit that starts when an ordinary person awakens to step into an extraordinary life. Amazing things happen when we set out on that journey. To discover and pursue your handcrafted dreams is a choice. Your past, circumstances of birth, or even challenges of life are no match for the power of your design. But if you don't live by design, you will ultimately end up with a life of default. Do you have a dream for your career, for your family, for your finances, or, most importantly, for your destiny? Do you have a design for this year? Or are you simply making it from day to day with no direction and no strategy for the future?
