

Trinity; The Father, the Son, the Holy Ghost (Love Is the Nature of existence) (Volume 3)

The Stars twinkle in the sky, I havent a cause to reason why. Many eons ago giants walked the land, and helped man become better by teaching him how to make bricks out of sand. Where they came from, no one knew; it was as if theyd fallen from above to help man make everything fresh and new. People gathered and formed towers that soared way up in the sky; the distance was so enormous, it was difficult to measure how high. Such tremendous feats made man realize he is a great deal more than what he thought he was before. But not long after the giants left people couldnt seem to get along; even though the angels would frequently sing a beautiful song. A lack of respect and cooperation, made man think the answer was solitude and separation. It wasnt till the titans returned that man managed to remember what he once knew, and began to build a fortress out of rubble that was once cement, and also think the apparitions that appeared must be heaven sent.
