

The Other Face of Love: Dialogues with the Prison Experience of Albert Speer

This remarkable book about the inexhaustible mercy of God uses the life story of Albert Speer, Hitler's architect, as a window to our own souls. The story of Speer—a man who sold his soul for ambition's sake and later repented and reformed—holds startling truths for all of us. Pollard offers profound insights on evil and suffering, denial and self-knowledge, conversion and atonement, and most of all, the unconditional love of God.
