

The Martial Arts Parents Frequently Asked Questions: How to Unlock Your Child's Potential Through Martial Arts (The Asian Sun Martial Arts Series Book 1)

Your child studies martial arts. Maybe you do, too. Maybe you're considering starting. So you have questions. Master Instructor Ryan Andrachik has answers. This handy new manual for performance and parenting answers the questions most frequently asked at his schools, tournaments, and international competitions, including How do I find a good martial arts school? My daughter is having a bad day and doesn't want to class. What should I do? My child is being bullied. Can you help? My child wants to quit. Should we let him? How can I get my child to be more [insert adjective here]? I want my children to learn martial arts. But they don't want to take classes. Should I make them? When do I know my child is ready to compete? My child has special needs does that mean he can't study martial arts? Presented in a conversational, frank tone, these are lessons you can read in the lobby during your child's martial arts class then revisit over a lifetime. Ryan Andrachik has 35 years of experience in various styles. He is a 7th degree black belt in Taekwondo, recognized by the World Song Moo Kwan, Kukkiwon and USA Taekwondo. He holds a 4th degree black sash in muay Thai. His Asian Sun Training Centers form Ohio's largest martial arts school. Andrachik is the head instructor of the Asian Sun Competition Team. In 2014, he was inducted into the International Karate and Kickboxing Hall of Fame. A husband and father, he helps raise four black belts, and is married to a fifth.
