

The Philosophers Table: How to Start Your Philosophy Dinner Club - Monthly Conversation, Music, and Recipes

Talk doesnt cook rice. Chinese ProverbAccording to Socrates, knowledge is food for the soul. Thats all well and good for the Socratic but, according to Maslow, food for the stomach is a far more pressing matter. But why cant you have your talk, and cook rice too? With The Philosophers Table, Marietta McCarty shows you that you can. In this book, you will find all of the necessary ingredients to start a Philosophy Dinner Club, taking a monthly tour around the world with friends to sample hors doeuvres of succulent wisdom and fill your plate with food from each philosophers home country. With recipes, theories, and insights both old and newall peppered with McCartys charming and informative proseyou and your friends will: Enjoy fresh homemade lamb meatballs and tzatziki, and the simple pleasures of life in Epicuruss ancient Greek garden. Practice nonviolence (in life and at the dinner table) while sharing tofu curry with Burmas Aung San Suu Kyi. Learn the fundamentals of rational decision-making with a mouthful of bratwurst from Germanys Immanuel KantIn the spirit of accepting change, ditch the familiar take-out containers and dine on homemade shrimp dumplings with Chinas Lao Tzu. And so much more! Complete with McCartys recommendations for ethnic music from each region to enjoy during your gatherings and discussion questions to prompt debate, The Philosophers Table contains everything you need to leave your hosts home brimming with both nutritional and mental satisfaction.
