

The Question: What Makes You Feel Loved (Volume 1)

If we don't know what makes us feel loved how will we know when we are being loved? How will we know what love to ask for? Britten Beauvoix traveled the world asking The Question What makes you feel loved and of the over four hundred people she asked- Not one had ever thought about what made them feel loved before! If we don't know what makes us feel loved how will we know when we are being loved? How will we know what love to ask for? How will we know if we are living the life we want? How will we know what love to give others? Finally Britten Beauvoix has taken the mystery out of love in ways no one has described before. No more wondering-if it is love or not--she has simplified love for us by explaining how to recognize it, receive it and recreate it in others. She helps us understand and then unravel the confusion around -chem-matic love-that powerful heated mixture of chemistry and romance- and tells us how to understand, embrace and what we need to gently dissolve our protective walls. Britt demonstrates the power of The Question with scenarios with her clients- who simply by revealing their vulnerability by giving their answers- were able to transform their relationship as well as their lives!. You will also be continually touched by the one hundred and fifty poignant answers she has included- of some of the people she interviewed in her travels- from seven to one hundred and one years of age. If you want to put more love into your life this is the book you will read and reread and carry with you wherever you go!
