

Tilly has moved to an adoptive family. She has settled in well, but some uncomfortable feelings about herself and her birth family remain. Is she a “bad” person? Are her birth parents are “bad”? She seeks reassurance from her new mother. The book can simply be a story to read to a child. It may give the child or adult an opening to share and reassure. So many children believe that they are somehow “bad” Children experience pain and confusion at the loss of their birth family.
