

J. I. Case Agricultural and Construction Equipment: 1956-1994 (J. I. Case Agriculture & Construction Equipment, 56-94)

This story begins in the mid-1950s, picking up where the first volume left off. Authors Tom Stonehouse and Eldon Brumbaugh offer this insiders account of the Case Company. Find out why the focus shifted to the larger tractors; what influenced the design and manufacture of construction equipment; how the acquisition of IH in 1985 impacted the Case line; and how Case went full circle to become one of the leading full-line ag manufacturers in the 1990s. An absolutely unforgettable tale, told with engaging text, over 500 photos (more than 250 in color), and appendix.
