

Christianus: The Form of the Catholic Person

Dom Anscar Vonier, Abbot of Buckfast, was among Englands greatest homilists and theologians of the early twentieth century. His many classic works include A Key to the Doctrine of the Eucharist, The Life of the World to Come, and The Personality of Christ. In Christianus, Abbot Vonier presents an absorbing theological reflection on how the indwelling of Christ expresses itself in the Christian moral life, in the visible form of the Christian Person. Through a series of meditations on the distinct components of Catholic morality and spiritualitydiscipleship, prayer, liturgy, fruitfulness, temptation, citizenship, preparation for deathVonier offers a view of how the whole Christian person is formed, from the center out, by the charity of Christ. Both personally inspiring and theologically exact, Voniers reflections lead the reader to a distinctly Christ-centered view of the truly happy life. He insists that to experience joy in the practice of virtue, We must, above all things, become wise in the mysteries of Christs personality.
