

If you haven't attended a Life-giving Church before or for a while, you may just be in for a pleasant surprise. That's why we want to get this message across to you loud and clear: Life-giving Churches are waiting to serve you and your family! A Life-giving Church is a breath of fresh air. The people are friendly and cordial; and will be excited to have you and your family in their midst. They are not arrogant, self-absorbed or stuck-up. They really strive to love God with all their heart and to love their neighbours as they love themselves. This booklet will help you understand why God wants you to be faithfully involved in a Life-giving Church – even if you've been hurt or disappointed by a Church in the past. You will take away 12 great reasons to get established in a great Church in your area.
