

What happens to faith when the creeds and confessions can no longer be squared with historical and empirical evidence? Most critical scholars have wrestled with this question. Some have found ways to reconcile their personal religious belief with the scholarship they practice. Others have chosen to reconstruct their view of religious meaning in light of what they have learned. But most have tended not to share those views in a public forum. In the pages of When Faith Meets Reason, thirteen scholars take up the challenge to speak candidly about how they negotiate the conflicting claims of faith and reason, in hopes that their journeys will inspire others to engage in their own search for meaning. "I love this book! It offers a unique window into the thoughts, the doubts, struggles and conclusions of highly educated people as they "wrestle with their angel of faith." . . . Wonderful for study groups, personal retreats or family discussions."—Fred Plumer, President, The Center for Progressive Christianity "This book could lead to a dangerous epidemic of honesty among religious thinkers." —Richard Holloway, Bishop of Edinburgh and Primus of the Scottish Episcopal Church retired
