

Tears of Fears Behind Closed Doors

Today is the first day for the rest of your life! Do not allow anyone to steal a moment of it! I will share with you pieces of my past; please realize the words are written to you as if I am sitting and speaking with you! I understand where you are and how you hurt ... time truly does heal all wounds, inside and out. You may not think so right now ... but it does! Yes, you will always carry the scars, but we now call them scars of wisdom. Never go backwards ... things don't change, they just disguise themselves. We will all share lots of tears, but I believe, no, I know that through out this book, they will be tears of relief, joy and hope and as each tear rolls down our cheeks; they will only splash us at our feet to help our souls grow as it creates a new stronger earth beneath us! Walk through the field of hope and inspiration and dreams ... Visualize your future and don't let a day go by without starting it with the image of you in the mirror smiling and closing the evening with a twinkle in your eyes knowing that you changed in some way, only to make tomorrow a brighter day! You can do it! AND YOU WILL! about the author My passion has always been to pay it forward by helping as many people as I can find the greatness within themselves. I have learned how to turn my dark, abusive past into a positive appreciation and hold no regrets or grudges
